Dear Jenny,

Note- review by Eucomed cannot begin without a list of hotel options. If you would kindly send these at your earliest convenience, it would be great!

Best regards,
Kathlyn

Dear Jenny,

Would you kindly send over the present list of hotel options for HIS in Lyon 2014? I am required to submit these to EucoMed for approval. A preliminary list is okay for the submission.

Best regards,
Kathlyn

Hi Paul,

It was nice talking with you just now. Could you also send me some information on hotel options for HIS in Lyon? I will also need a preliminary program and possibly a copy of last year's program. Both of these requests are needed for Eucomed.

Best regards,
Kathlyn

Dear Kathlyn,

As a previous exhibitor at this event I notice we still do not have any booking for your organization, as an added incentive we are willing to offer a 5% discount to book immediately.

This event really is shaping up to becoming one of the leading infection prevention and control conferences in Europe in 2014, particularly with the collaboration of the French Society for Hospital Hygiene (SF2H). We are anticipating over 1000 delegates from infection control and microbiological backgrounds with over 400 poster submissions and an excellent programme of speakers, therefore the scientific content will be of the highest calibre.

Key speakers next year include:- Professor S Harbarth, Epidemiologist, Geneva University Hospital, Dr S Munoz-Price, Medical Director, Jackson Memorial Hospital, US, Dr M W M Wassenberg, Infectious Diseases Specialist, University Medical Centre Utrecht, Professor D Crook, Consultant Microbiologist, Oxford University Hospitals, Dr Mark Wilcox, Consultant Microbiologist, Leeds, UK, Professor G Greub, Head of Medical Diagnostics, University of Lausanne and many other high profile clinicians.

The commercial exhibition is now fully underway although there are still some major sponsorship opportunities still available including Gold and Silver sponsorship and of course company symposia lasting 60 minutes, therefore I would urge you to review the prospectus and consider submitting your request for exhibition space as soon as possible.

As you are probably aware HIS 2012 in Liverpool was almost fully booked, so in order to avoid disappointment please contact us immediately to book your space for the joint HIS 2014 Exhibition in Lyon.

Kind regards

Paul
