

Day 3 Morning
17th January 2012

	Room 1	Room 2	Room 3
Time	Toxicology Chair: Bruno Megarbane and Mohammed Al Helail	Sepsis Chair: Philip Levy and Mohamed Mouhaoui	Education Chair: David Williams and Semir Nouria
9:00	Carlo Locatelli (Italy) Recreational drugs	9:00 Deb Derricks (USA) Updates on the Initial Management of Sepsis in the Emergency Department	9:00 Khalid Al Johani (Saudi Arabia) Emergency Medicine challenges in Saudi Arabia
9:25	Mohammed Al Helail (Saudi Arabia) Household poisons	9:25 Eric Revue (France) Timing of antibiotics and outcomes in septic shock	9:25 David Williams (UK) Evolution of Emergency Medicine Education in UK
9:50	Arif Alper Cevik (Turkey) Mushroom Poisonings	9:50 Philip Levy (USA) Hemodynamic monitoring of sepsis in the emergency department	9:50 David Williams (UK) European Curriculum of Emergency Medicine
10:15	Mohammed Al Helail (Saudi Arabia) Snake and scorpion envenomation	10:15 Abdelouahab Bellou (France) Biomarkers in Sepsis	10:15 Gamal Abbas (UAE) Implementation of Resuscitation courses in Arab Countries
10:50	Coffee Break	10:50 Coffee Break	10:50 Coffee Break
11:20	Carlo Locatelli (Italy) Antidotes in the Emergency room	11:20 Junaid Razzak (Pakistan) Sepsis - challenges in low income countries	11:20 Fahad Al Orifi (Saudi Arabia) Use of telemedicine for developing emergency medicine services
11:45	Bruno Mégarbane (France) Antidotes for cyanide poisoning	11:45 Nadeem Qureshi (Saudi Arabia) Choice of inotropes in pediatric sepsis?	11:45 Fikri Abu Zidan (UAE) Critical decision making in Emergency Medicine: A vital skill
12:10	Bruno Mégarbane (France) Management of cardiotoxicant poisonings	12:10 Philip Levy (USA) Cardiac dysfunction during severe sepsis	12:10 Amin Kazzi (Lebanon) Establishing EM as a Specialty in Lebanon: Successes, Challenges, Future & Controversies
12:35	Marc Sabbe (Belgium) Lipid rescue: myth or reality?	12:35 Abdullah Al Sakka (Saudi Arabia) Use of Adjunctive Therapies in sepsis	12:35 Junaid Razzak (Pakistan) Setting Up an academic department of Emergency Medicine in a developing country
13:00	Plenary Session Room 1 Khaled Abu Haimed Emergency Medicine Need for Globalization
13:20	Lunch Break

Day 3 Afternoon
17th January 2012

	Room 1	Room 2	Room 3
Time	The experts answer to hot questions		Time	Education
14:30	Expert Panel 1: Thrombolysis or Angioplasty in STEMI? Philip Levy (USA)		14:30	Osama Kentab (Saudi Arabia) Building a solid emergency medicine education program: Nuts and bolts
15:00	Expert Panel 2 PCT or CRP in sepsis? Abdelouahab Bellou (France)		15:00	Mohamed Mouhaoui (Morocco) Evolution of Emergency Medicine Education in North Africa
15:30	Expert Panel 3 Is the EGDT still recommended for sepsis management? Deb Derricks (USA)		15:30	Amjad Obeid (Bahrain) Evolution of Emergency Medicine Education in Bahrain
16:30	Closing Ceremony		16:00	Mike Abbo (UAE) Evolution of Emergency Medicine Education in the UAE
			16:30	Closing Ceremony