June 5 – 10, 2016
Helsinki | Finland

Professor and Head Mika Niemelä, MD, PhD
Professor Emeritus Juha Hernesniemi, MD, PhD
Helsinki Neurosurgery, University of Helsinki, Finland

Professor Juha Hernesniemi, Professor Mika Niemelä, Professor Ali F. Krisht (Little Rock, AR, USA), Professor Ugur Türe (Istanbul, Turkey), Professor Rokuya Tanikawa (Sapporo, Japan), Professor Michael T. Lawton (San Francisco, CA, USA) and Professor Evandro de Oliveira (Sao Paulo, Brazil) along with senior, junior and nursing staff will demonstrate and discuss different approaches and microsurgical techniques in live operations in various lesions (aneurysms, AVMs, cavernomas, extrinsic and intrinsic tumors and spine surgery). Helsinki Neurosurgery has 3 500 operations in five ORs annually. More information about the department on www.hus.fi/neurosurgery.

The course starts on Sunday, June 5, 2016 at 2pm with lectures in the lecture hall 1 in Töölö Hospital. The lectures will finish around 6pm.

During the course there will be 6–8 operations per day, i.e. 25–30 operations altogether in three ORs. Professors will discuss the cases and present microsurgical videos between and after the operations. The operative schedule runs every day from 8am to approximately 6pm.

A USB stick containing the case presentations will be handed out to all participants. Publications on clinical experiences by the special guests and the Helsinki staff will also be handed out during the course. Selected papers by the participants can be presented during the course and the participants are encouraged to present their work. Please contact Professor Mika Niemelä (mika.niemela@hus.fi) in order to arrange a presentation.
