IASGO 2014

24th World Congress of the International Association of Surgeons, Gastroenterologists and Oncologists
December 5 - 8, 2014 Medical University of Vienna, Austria

Dear Colleagues,

in the name of IASGO - International Association of Surgeons, Gastroenterologists and Oncologists - it is a particular pleasure for me inviting you to the 24th World Congress of IASGO in Vienna from December 5 - 8, 2014.

This Congress will take place at the Medical University of Vienna and will focus on the topic „Multidisciplinary Treatment of GI Cancer“. Specialists and opinion leaders from across the world have agreed to attend and will present state-of-the-art developments and the most recent results.

We established a stimulating program with special consideration to the importance of interdisciplinary cooperation in the field of GI cancer.

We expect attendants from more than 45 countries to ensure a top level of scientific exchange, but simultaneously allowing time for the intercommunication of new ideas and the building set-up of new networking structures.

Besides these medical tasks, however, the accompanying program provides opportunities for making new friends, deepen friendships and simply come closer across the continents. Vienna is at its very best in December abounding with a variety of historical and cultural highlights. The pre-Christmas time in Vienna repletes with characteristic Christmas markets and lends this meeting a setting redolent with atmosphere.

Sincerely

Béla Teleky, MD, FRCS

President of the 2014 IASGO - Congress
